And now what shall I say of his constant, systematic, devoted friendship, that will not fall so far short of the truth that it will sound coldly, and be felt as inadequte. Spasmodic friendship, gushing emotions, are all understood; but the friendship of John R. Thompson was perennial, ceaseiess as the flow of a fountain, and, like that, ever pure and refreshing. Neither time nor distance affected it in the slightest degree. He thought of his friends every day and every hour.

I never knew a man more faithful and diligent in any work that his hands found to do; I never knew a man of keener sense of honor and devotion to truth. He who was so true in friendship was necessarily a true and devoted son. Whilst he shunned all ostentations displays, his filial affection was the guiding and controlling star of his career. He was true to his parents, true to his friends, true to himself, and, as I firmly hope and believe, true to his God.

His difficulty (for I will not say his defect) was that he did not have sufficient self-confidence. He seemed afraid to "imp his wing"; and yet when thrown entirely upon his own resources he always did best. Much of this is due, no doubt, to the occupations he was compelled to pursue. Some one has rather wickedly described newspaper paragraphs as strings of "disjointed thinking." Rejecting this as extreme, we must still admit that the occupation of the editor has and A. R. Courtney, were unanimously too often the tendency to fritter away the agreed to: powers of the mind, and that the intellect which concentrated on one grand object, sults, is too often, when subdivided like liam English, with great regret, deem it that river of which Alexander broke the proper to express their deepest sorrow at strength, spending itself thereafter in chan- this sad dispensation of Providence; therenels which have no great name upon the fore earth.

But if he did not accomplish all that he deof true virtues and rich examples, that we can all cordially unite in exclaiming-

"Now give we thanks, O! Lord, for him Gone in Thy faith and fear: The good he wrought, the seed he sowed, And left to ripen here— For all the honor, love, and peace, That make his memory dear.

At the close of the address Rev. Moses D. Hoge, in the name of the audience and and a conscientiousness which no obstacle on behalf of the friends of the dead poet, returned thanks to Mr. Barbour for his chaste and masterly address, and in concluding his remarks recited a few lines of one of Mr. Thompson's poems. Mr. Barbour replied to Dr. Hoge, and friends of Mr. Thompson."

OTHER FEATURES OF THE DAY. After leaving the cemetery the First Virginia regiment had dress-parade in one of the neighboring fields.

During the afternoon the flags upon the State capitol and upon the steamship Wyanoke, Captain Couch, as well as other shipping in port, were displayed at half-mast. We are requested to return the thanks of the Southern Cross Brotherhood, for valuable contributions of flowers, to Mrs. Dr. Vaiden and A. H., Goshen Depôt; Mrs. Mary Ann Morris and Mr. L. N. Dyson, Hanover Junction; Mrs. Sturdivant and Captain A. G. Loving, Gordonsville; Mrs. William O. Harvey and Mrs. Jones, Chula; Mrs. F. B. Cutler, Louisa Courthouse; Mrs. C. C. CUTIVE CONSERVATIVE COMMITTEES .- A meetwas held at the Exchange yesterday. General Taliaferro was elected chairman of the corner Main and Eleventh streets. State Committee, and James R. Fisher secretary. The committee than elected the following canvassers at large for the State: Hon. A. B. Cochran, Augusta; W. S. Gilman, Richmond; W. R. Berkeley, Prince Edward; General J. G. Field, Culpeper; A. R. Phlegar, Montgomery; John Neely, Accomac; B. W. Lacy, New Kent; W. W. Berry, Bedford; and Henry Edmonds, satisfactorily painted with them will be repainted the members.

The President of the State Convention, Hon. J. L. Marye, made the following appointment of an Executive Committee: N. B. Meade, of Richmond; A. M. Keiley, of Richmond; and John H. Guy, of Rich- at Boschen's, 509 and 511 Broad street. The following resolution was offered by Mr. Marye:

Resolved, That the members of this committee from the respective Congressional districts shall have authority to fix the time and place for holding conventions to nominate candidates for Congress from their respective districts, and that it is the sense of this committee that the preservation of the harmony, discipline, and efficiency of the Conservative party will be best maintained by the holding of such conventions in all cases. Adopted.

The following was adopted:

zance of, or act upon, any matter affecting the policy or discipline of the party, or regulating the party organizations, either for the State or sub-division thereof, but in all these matters shall execute the decisions and directions of the State Committee. But nothing in this resolution is to be construed to limit the Executive Committee in contributing, by its advice and effort, to an energetic and efficient prosecution of party causes.

A resolution was offered that in the event of a vacancy occurring in the State Executive Committee the chairman of the State Committee be authorized to fill the same. Adjourned.

Police Court, Yesterday—Police-Justice White presiding.—Some days ago Dr. J. G. Skelton appeared before the Police Justice upon the complaint of James D. Browne to show cause why he should not be fined for allowing water to leak from the culvert on his premises and damaging the wall of the Virginia Opera-House, thereby causing a nuisance. The case was partially heard and continued in order that the city engineer might examine the premises. The engineer, after a thorough examination, found the wall in rear of the stage to be in a dangerous condition. He accordingly reported the fact to the Police Justice, who at once issued a summons against James D. Browne to show cause why he should not be fined for allowing the wall to remain in a dangerous condition.

The case was taken up again vesterday morning. The Justice ordered Dr. Skelton to abate the nuisance, and ordered Mr. Browne to strengthen the wall. Immediate measures will be taken to have the wall made perfectly strong and safe.

Richard Evans (colored), picked upon the sidewalk Wednesday night drunk, was discharged with an admonition.

The case of Hartley Waddell (a colored woman), charged with assault and battery, also charged with disorderly conduct, was continued until to-day.

Charles Dawson (colored) was fined five dollars and costs and sent to jail for fortyeight hours for assaulting and striking Carter Page with a brick. POLICE COURT STATISTICS FOR MAY. - During the past month the Police Justice disposed of 323 criminal charges and tried 119 cases of ordinance violations. On criminal charges 20 persons were sent on to the Hustings Court for indictment, 10 were sent to jail on conviction of assault and battery or petit larceny, and 18 in default of surety for their good behavior. Fines collected: State, $57.50; costs, $81.25; city, $151.

FALL OF A FRONT.—The front of a house on Main below Seventeenth street, while undergoing alterations yesterday toppled over into the street. No one was injured; and no great pecuniary loss was inflicted.

MASONIC ENDOWMENT FUND .- The general committee appointed from the several Masonic lodges in the city to prepare an endowment plan have agreed upon a scheme and it will now be sent down to the lodges to be agreed to by the members. The plan is unlike that of the Odd-Fellows' endowment fund in that the amount to be paid on the death of a member will vary according to age. The general insurance feature, however, is virtually the same.

CAPTAIN W. H. HAYWARD, of Chester, formerly of this city, will accept thanks for a cross and wreath sent us on yesterday. They were at once sent out to Hollywood, to be used in decorating graves.

SALES OF REAL ESTATE.-Messrs. Squire & Goddin, real estate auctioneers and brokers, 917 Bank street, sold on yesterday the handsome country seat of William B. Matthews, Esq., called "Bellmont," lying on the New North road, in Henrico county, one and a half miles from the city, with twelve acres of land, for $4,000. Also, large brick residence on Mayo street, known as the "Rutherfoord House, fronting thirty-one and a half feet by one hundred and twenty-eight feet deep to a wide alley, for $4,000.

A TRIBUTE TO THE LATE MR. WILLIAM ENGLISH .- At the last meeting of the City School Board the following resolutions, prepared by a special committee composed of Messrs. W. H. Scott, Beverly R. Wellford,

Whereas the members of the School Board of the city of Richmond, having learned of the death of their associate, Captain Wil-

1. Resolved, That from the organization of this Board to the time of his last appearsired or we expected of him, our friend has ance in our midst he was an earnest, zealdone enough to establish a fame pure and ous, and enthusiastic worker in the cause enduring, and has left a memory so fragrant of education and the public school system, and we feel we will greatly miss his valuable services and friendly interest in this cause.

2. One great merit of our deceased associate was that there was nothing negative in his character. Whatever was right he was always ready to espouse with all the force and impulse of an energetic nature, could retard. 3. His whole-hearted, unwavering devotion to truth and right made no sacrifice too great. Possessed of the highest generosity and benevolence, he always in his advocacy of the interests of his people showed more said: "I am satisfied if I have satisfied the than ordinary feeling and the best impulses of noble manhood.

4. We condole with his bereaved family, and tender them our heartfelt sympathies; and that the secretary of this Board be requested to forward a copy of the foregoing esolutions to them.

It contains 600 417-1000 ACRES, fronting on the River road and running back across the canal to the river. About 195 acres are river low-grounds, between the canal and the river, running up to Bosher's dam, of good quality; 50 acres of superior second low-grounds between the highlands and the canal; 290 acres of high-land; and 65 acres of heavily-wooded land, mostly in original growth. The buildings are unusually extensive and complete, embracing a good DWELLING with ten rooms, kitchen, laborers' quarters, two barns, two corn-houses, stables, sheds, extles belters sunde-house, dairy, beeuarters, two barns, two corn-houses, stables, sheds, attle-shelters, smoke-house, ice-house, dairy, bectouse, &c., &c., all in first-rate order.

There is a line orchard and a vineyard, also a limetiln and a brick-yard (both on the canal), with un mited quantities of the finest brick-clay, and also of limited quantities of the finest brick-clay, and also of building-sand, which can be profitably transported to the clty.

The whole farm is enclosed by an oak-plank fence with cedar-posts, all put up within the last year.

About 35 acres are in wheat, 130 acres in oats, 100 acres in clover to be moved this year, and the 165 acres in wheat and oats are seeded with clover, 30 acres in clover and timothy, 114 acres in corn, and 40 acres in sod (now used for grazing), and enclosed in lots with new fences. closed in lots with new fences.

For some years this estate has been under a most thorough system of improvement by the use of lime and stable manure (brought from Richmond by boats), and, as the growing crops will show, it is now one of the most productive farms on James river. The soil is mostly of the chocolate clay and loam variety; is very susceptible and retentive of improvement, producing finely in grain, grasses, tobacco, and other crops of this section.

Its situation on the canal affords every facility for and other crops of this section.

Its situation on the canal affords every facility for the cheapest transportation, whilst its nearness to the city makes it an exceedingly desirable country-seat, and in competent hands it cannot fail to prove a profitable investment.
